Good morning. Here is the first update on the convoy demonstration for February 27th. Updates will come periodically throughout the day.

A friendly reminder that information contained in these emails is restricted to the Intersect partner agencies at this level. Please do not forward this information.

- There was an arrest of another convoy organizer last night
- The fenced area in front of Parliament Hill has been further reduced overnight to include Elgin to Kent along Wellington. This area is open to pedestrian traffic but vehicular traffic is not permitted
- There continues to be a strong police presence in the downtown core today
- Police are monitoring potential protests, as well as the various encampments within and outside of the City of Ottawa limits
- The City of Ottawa's Roads Department continues to work on remediation efforts. This work should be completed by this evening
- Bylaw will be in the downtown core to ticket vehicles parked illegally
- For your situational awareness, there will be a large demonstration against Russia's invasion of the Ukraine in front of the Russian Embassy (285 Charlotte St). Between 300-500 participants are expected. Police are aware
- This morning the status of the interprovincial bridges is:
 - Alexandra Bridge is open
 - Champlain Bridge is open
 - Chaudière Crossing is open
 - Macdonald-Cartier Bridge is open
 - Portage Bridge is open but southbound is reduced to 1 lane
